MUSEUM OF NORTH IDAHO

The Museum's feature exhibit Observing North Idaho's Forest Dynamics explores the role of the Western white pine in bringing timber companies to our region, logging and milling activities along with natural and human forces that shaped our forest. Enjoy free admission on Saturday, www.museumni.org, 208-664-3448.

NIC CORNER GALLERY

Charcoal drawings by local artist, Elaine Green - "The charcoal drawings almost have the appearance of black and white photos," says Green. "I work in both an additive and subtractive manner, using my hands to rub charcoal into the paper and erasers to remove it. It's more like a sculptural process than drawing."

OPERA COEUR D'ALENE

Enjoy a free one-hour concert of vocal music from opera, Broadway, and popular sources ~ performing in the Resort Plaza Shops! www.operacda.org, 208.964.4469.

SCARECROW BUILD

Scarecrow Build ~ Clothes, hats and straw provided for children to build and name a scarecrow with their imagination as the only limitation! The scarecrows will be displayed throughout the downtown area during the week of the festival. FREE! Sponsored by Art on the Edge, St. Vincent de Paul's free community art program for children. www.artontheedge.org, 208.676.0917.

SALLY MACHLIS

These abstract works are the result of her recent sabbatical in Taiwan studying Chinese calligraphy and ink painting. Inspired by these lessons, Machlis has used traditional Chinese materials - brush, ink and rice paper in new ways to create personal and expressive artworks

SONS OF NORWAY

A multicultural concert featuring a different segment of Grieg's Peer Gynt Suite, again interpreted by pianist George Conrad. Also highlighting entertainer Rod Erickson. Tickets available at Centre Beauty Supply, Great Harvest Bread Co., Jacklin Arts Center, Kindermusik. 208.777.1030.

SWEET ADELINES

Come and enjoy the sweet sounds of the Cd'A Sweet Adelines in the Resort Plaza Shops. Twenty-five minutes of wonderful a capella harmony, barbershop style including today's ballads and upbeat songs, popular show tunes and jazz! www.sweetadelinesintl.org, 208.777.8558.
